

Handwritten text in a medieval script, likely Latin or a related language, covering the majority of the page. The text is dense and appears to be a legal or administrative document. The script is a cursive Gothic hand, characteristic of the late Middle Ages. The text is written in dark ink on aged, yellowish parchment. The document is oriented vertically on the page, with the top of the parchment at the top of the image. The text is arranged in a single column, with some lines starting with large initial letters. The overall appearance is that of a historical manuscript page.

Handwritten text at the bottom of the page, possibly a signature or a date. It includes a decorative flourish or initial letter, followed by some illegible characters. The text is written in the same medieval script as the main body of the document.
