

Handwritten text in a medieval script, likely Latin or a Romance language. The text is densely packed and covers most of the page. It appears to be a legal or administrative document, possibly a charter or a record of a council. The script is a cursive hand, characteristic of the late Middle Ages. The text is written in dark ink on parchment or similar material. There are some faint markings and what might be a small decorative initial or symbol at the bottom right of the page.

Handwritten text at the bottom right of the page, possibly a signature or a date. It includes a stylized symbol that resembles a swastika or a similar religious or heraldic emblem, followed by some illegible characters.
