

A black and white photograph of a weathered stone wall. In the upper right, there is a window with a dark frame and multiple panes. Below the window, on the left side, is a rectangular street sign with a decorative border. The sign contains the text 'TRAVESSA DO BARREDO' in three lines. The wall itself is made of large, rough-hewn stones with visible mortar joints. The overall tone is historical and aged.

TRAVESSA
DO
BARREDO

