

Main body of handwritten text in a historical script, likely Latin or a related language, covering most of the page.

Handwritten signature or initials at the bottom of the text block.

