

A photograph of a large, oval-shaped, light brown leather object, possibly a book cover or a piece of parchment, with a dark, patterned cord tied around its top edge. The object has faint, handwritten text in the center, including the word 'apud' and a large, stylized letter 'S'. The object is placed on a white surface, and a piece of light brown paper is visible at the top.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or letter. The text is written on aged, yellowed paper. The script is difficult to decipher but appears to be a form of early modern European cursive. The text is arranged in several lines, with some lines being more prominent than others. The paper shows signs of wear, including creases and discoloration.
