

Card 1: Slave
The sculpture is a study of the human form, showing the power and strength of the male body. The figure is bound, symbolizing the loss of freedom and the suffering of the slave. The chains and padlock are a powerful visual metaphor for the institution of slavery.

Card 2: Slave
The sculpture is a study of the human form, showing the power and strength of the male body. The figure is bound, symbolizing the loss of freedom and the suffering of the slave. The chains and padlock are a powerful visual metaphor for the institution of slavery.